

CPA Dozzi Earns Fraud-Examination Certification

CrawfordEllenbogen's COO also serves in the firm's fraud-investigation practice

PITTSBURGH, PA – JANUARY 2009 – Victor D. Dozzi, CPA, a Partner and Chief Operating Officer of Pittsburgh-based public accounting firm CrawfordEllenbogen, has been named a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. In addition to his other responsibilities, Dozzi is active in CrawfordEllenbogen's fraud-investigation practice, headed by Barbara Wagner, CPA, also a Certified Fraud Examiner.

Dozzi, who earned a master's degree in taxation with high honors from Duquesne University and a bachelor's degree in mathematics and accounting, magna cum laude, from Carlow University has been with CrawfordEllenbogen for 12 years. Along with advising business and non-profit clients on accounting and finance matters, he has taught and lectured at Carlow, the University of Pittsburgh, and other educational and arts institutions. He also serves as Treasurer of the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Pittsburgh chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs.

CrawfordEllenbogen provides tax, accounting and advisory services to small businesses, their owners and families, and individuals. Its fraud-investigation practice serves attorneys, insurers and others, providing analysis of financial records, development of lines of inquiry, information gathering, reporting, advice, and court testimony. The firm was named Employer of the Year in 2008 by the Pennsylvania Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, District 3, and Working Mother magazine named it one of the nation's Top 25 Women-Owned Businesses.
