

CPA Dozzi Recognized as One of Region's Young Leaders

CrawfordEllenbogen's COO named to two 40 Under 40 lists

PITTSBURGH, PA, SEPTEMBER 8, 2009 – Victor D. Dozzi, CPA, a Partner and Chief Operating Officer of Pittsburgh-based public accounting firm CrawfordEllenbogen, has been named to the 40 Under 40 list of young community leaders honored annually by Pittsburgh Magazine and the Pittsburgh Urban Magnet Project (PUMP). Dozzi has also been named to the 40 Under 40 list of “Members to Watch” by the Pennsylvania Institute of Professional Accountants (PIPICA), the profession's primary organization in the commonwealth.

The list from Pittsburgh Magazine and PUMP honors young people for their personal and professional contributions to improving the region. Selected from hundreds of nominees by an independent panel of regional leaders, winners are chosen for their passion, commitment, visibility, diversity and overall impact on the region. Winners will be featured in the magazine's November issue.

The PICPA list honors young leaders in accounting who have demonstrated commitment to the profession.

Dozzi, who earned a master's degree in taxation with high honors from Duquesne University and a bachelor's degree in mathematics and accounting, magna cum laude, from Carlow University, has been with CrawfordEllenbogen for 12 years. Along with advising business and non-profit clients on accounting and finance matters, he serves as Treasurer of the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Pittsburgh chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs. He has also taught and lectured at Carlow, the University of Pittsburgh, and other local educational and arts institutions.

CrawfordEllenbogen provides tax, accounting and advisory services to small businesses, their owners and families, and individuals, as well as litigation-support and fraud-investigation services for attorneys, insurers and others. The firm was named Employer of the Year in 2008 by the Pennsylvania Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, District 3, and Working Mother magazine named it one of the nation's Top 25 Women-Owned Businesses.
