Dozzi Awarded Master's Degree in Taxation

CrawfordEllenbogen partner earns high honors in Duquesne University graduate program

Pittsburgh, Aug. 23, 2006—Victor D. Dozzi, a CPA and partner at CrawfordEllenbogen LLC, has been awarded a master's degree in taxation with high honors from Duquesne University. A ten-year veteran of CrawfordEllenbogen, he advises clients on a full range of accounting and finance matters, including tax strategy and tax compliance.

Dozzi also teaches accounting at Carlow University, where he received his bachelor's degree in mathematics and accounting magna cum laude. He also serves as treasurer of the Greater Pittsburgh Arts Council and chairs the organization's Finance and Compensation committees.

CrawfordEllenbogen, one of the region's oldest locally based public accounting firms, provides integrated accounting and advisory services to closely held businesses, their owners, other individuals, and non-profit organizations.
